The old harbour opened in 1912 and handled grain shipments from the northern valleys. Ships docked every day of the week except Saturday.